- (1) if any member does not attend a meeting in person or authorise another member to attend such meeting on his/her behalf, nor does he/she submit any opinion in writing prior to the meeting on two consecutive occasions; or
- (2) if such member fails to attend in person 3/4 of all meetings of the Committee held during any year.

Article 16 A meeting of the Committee shall be held only when it is attended by more than half of members of the Committee. A meeting shall be presided over by the chairman of the Committee, who may appoint another member to do so on his/her behalf when he/she is unable to attend the meeting.

Article 17 The agenda items shall be discussed during the meeting of the Committee. The members of the Committee shall explicitly, independently and fully express their opinion based on their judgement. In the case of any different opinion, such different opinion shall be stated in the meeting minutes to be presented to the board of directors.

Article 18 In general, the Committee shall physically meet on site to hold a meeting. Under special circumstances, on the condition that it is assured that the members of the Committee are able to sufficiently express their opinion, with the consent of the chairman of the Committee, meetings may be held by means of remote communication. If a meeting is held by means of remote communication, the Committee members shall submit to the board of directors their written opinion with respect to the matters on the agenda within the period prescribed by the notice of the meeting.

Article 19 Where necessary, the Committee may invite directors, senior management personnel and relevant experts of the Company, external experts, scholars, intermediary agencies and other relevant personnel to attend the meeting without voting rights. Such personnel invited to attend the meeting shall give explanation and statement as required by any Committee member.

Article 20 If a member of the Committee is interested in any matter being considered by the Committee, such member shall refrain from the consideration of such matter.

Article 21 All personnel attending the meeting shall have the obligation to keep all matters discussed at the meeting confidential and shall not disclose any information relating thereto without authorisation.
